9. Disclosure

- 9.1 We may pass your personal data on to companies, organizations or individuals contracted to One Financial Markets in the course of dealing with you. Any third parties that we share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide you on our behalf such as:
- i. Our subsidiaries and the staff located in our regional support offices such as those assisting with account opening, compliance, other operations, marketing or technical team members; authorized and trained on handling personal information for the provision of back office or other financial services (including payments processing and/or purchase transactions);
  - ii. The processors (individuals or companies) in contract with One Financial Markets in order to provide technical, compliance, regulatory, research, advertising, ancillary services and other administrative services including, but not limited to, liquidity providers, cloud service providers, data centers, regulators, auditors, independent financial advisors and legal representatives;
  - iii. Fund managers, appointed trader, brokers or partners (also known as 'Introducers' or 'Asset Managers') that have contracts with us and who introduced you to us and/or who you give permission to trade;
  - iv. Taxing authorities, law enforcement agencies or in order to protect our services, products, platforms or other systems;
  - v. We may also be approached by other processors or third parties to provide KYC documentation in order to fulfil their regulatory obligations or to carry out credit checks under AML, Countering Terrorist Financing and other fraud detection policies for example banks or payment service providers and we may do so under our legitimate interests in order that we comply with the applicable laws.
- 9.2 One Financial Markets will not sell, share with or transfer to third parties any information you provide except as set out in this Policy or other related policies linked herein.

10. Data transfers outside EEA

- 10.1 One Financial Markets has a global presence with representative offices located in the United Arab Emirates, Hong Kong and China.

10.2 We may have processors or partners in different countries around the world and therefore your personal data may be transferred, processed or used outside the EEA. As your data controller, we ensure that there are appropriate safeguards in place such as ensuring that all data processors are participants of the 'EU-US Privacy Shield' scheme if located in the US, otherwise bound by 'Model Contract Clauses' or 'Binding Corporate Rules' (for inter-group data exchanges) as appropriate.

11. How do we secure collection, processing and use of personal data?

11.1 We work hard to ensure our data processing activities are secured by following good industry practices, including, but not limited to:

- i. Encrypting data during collection and transfers
- ii. Restricting user access by roles and responsibilities
- iii. Using complicated passwords for processing and storage systems
- iv. Staff training and awareness
- v. Annual data security and compliance audits
- vi. Ensuring all processors and partners understand and comply with the data confidentiality requirements through contracts with One Financial Markets
- vii. Making regular data backups
- viii. Systematic and secure destruction of unwanted or excessive data or the information (documents and records) that have passed their retention period, where practicably doable

12. Data accuracy and retention

We will endeavor to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. However, we are required to retain information in accordance with the law, for example, records under the AML regulations must be kept for a minimum of six years from the end of the relationship. How long certain kinds of personal data should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices. Personal data may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

13. Under what circumstances will we contact you?

13.1 Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. You may be contacted only in relation to a query you may have raised, services you have requested or signed up for, in relation to your trading account, direct marketing or in order to obtain information or KYC documents to fulfill regulatory obligations through routine compliance monitoring procedures.

13.2 Moreover, the information you provide will be subject to rigorous measures and procedures to minimize the risk of unauthorized access or disclosure.

14. Our legal basis for processing personal data

14.1 All data collected in accordance with this Policy is necessary for the performance of the contract or necessary to provide other services as requested by you from time to time.

14.2 As an online broker regulated by the FCA, we have strict rules and regulations to adhere to and therefore processing your data (including sensitive data) is often required to fulfil our legal obligations, when you make a specific request requiring sensitive data to be processed or in order to achieve other business objectives as regarded to be in the Company's legitimate interest or that of the third parties contracted to us subject to rigorous assessment of risks to individuals' privacy.

15. Direct Marketing

15.1 One Financial Markets' legal basis for processing personal data for direct marketing purposes is of that legitimate business interest. If you are an existing client using our demo or live account services, we may, from time to time, send you promotions and other offers related to our products and services, market news or updates that we deem suitable for you.

15.2 We may also share your data with third parties for the purpose of marketing subject to ensuring that all parties contracted to us will safeguard your data and comply with data security principles as set forth in law.

15.3 Further to the above, in processing your data for marketing purposes, we will have assessed and mitigated the risks to data security and will have performed the balancing test between our legitimate business interest and your privacy.

15.4 If you do not wish to receive our direct marketing emails, you will be provided with an opt-out option at the point of collection of data. You can also amend the email preferences from within the client portal or simply click on the 'unsubscribe' link provided within the email.

16. Consent

If we require consent in order to provide any service or upon identifying a new purpose for processing, that is not stated within this Policy, we may contact you to seek consent from you. We will also confirm and ensure that the process for withdrawal of consent is in line with the requirements under the law.

17. Your rights as a data subject

17.1 At any point while we are in possession of or processing your personal data, you, the data subject, have the following rights:

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records – this is subject to any legal requirements that we may have for data retention in which instance, we reserve the right to continue to store your or use your data.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply to have a right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.
- Right to object to automated processing, including profiling – you also have the right to be subject to the legal effects of automated processing or profiling.
- Right to judicial review - in the event that we refuse your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why. You have the right to complain as outlined in the complaints section below.

17.2 All of the above requests will be forwarded on should there be a third party involved in the processing of your personal data.

18. Subject Access Request

At your request, we can confirm what information we hold about you and how it is processed. You can request this information in writing (by email or letter) or by completing our 'Subject Access Request' form, available on request. We may need to identify you in order to provide access to your data.

19. Breach notification

If any breach causes an unauthorized intrusion into our system that may affect you significantly, we will notify you as soon as practically possible and will take all necessary steps in order to avoid any such breaches from recurring.

20. Complaints

In the event that you wish to make a complaint about how your personal data is being processed by us (or third parties as described in the disclosure above), or how your complaint has been handled, you have the right to lodge a complaint directly with the supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office, and One Financial Markets' data protection representative:
